What do you know about your company's history?

The story of our company, Trucillo, begins in Naples 1950, when Cesare Trucillo, busy cargo vessels and sacks raw coffee beans, begins to work the best importers and dealers of the moment. This provides the impetus what is soon to erupt a full-blown passion. Luckily, his enthusiasm was shared his family, especially his three brothers, Umberto, Matteo and Vittorio. Thus their passion also became part of the family tradition and Caffè Moka Salerno was created. The firm quickly established itself the marketplace, laying the ground for its full arrival on the scene with all the credentials needed a competitive business. Since 1980, Matteo, son of the founder, has been charge of the business.

Hello, everyone, and welcome to this week's video case study on the topic of metal foam.

This week, we're discussing the following questions:

1. Think about the properties of metal foam that you discussed as part of the case study and saw in the video. Based on these, what are some potential uses for the material – other than those mentioned in the video?
2. What are some potential problems with the foam?
